BIO

French graffiti artist from the 80's. He lives close to Geneva and paints huge manga warrior characters inspired by Asian manga's from the 80's and 90's. He paints these warriors all over the world to protect people and wants to deliver a message of peace, respect and happiness. He tries to inspire hopeful visions and soothe tensions through his art. He just wants to give to the world his best contribution for a better future for all, particularly the youth who represent the next generation.
